BOVRIL AT THE FRONT.

Bovril has played such a conspicuous part in South Africa that it forms no inconsiderable feature of the story. "The Lancet" has had frequent references to Bovril in the reports of the officers of the Royal Army Medical Corps. Nearly every newspaper correspondent has had to refer to Bovril to make his story complete. Rudyard Kipling and Baden-Powell have written their Bovril stories. Over 500 British hospitals and similar public institutions use and prescribe Bovril, not beef tea, but Bovril.

The reason is not far to seek. Bovril is a nourisher as well as a stimulant. It contains the albumen and fibrine, the sustaining properties of the beer. It is this fact, together with its absolute purity, that commends Bovril to physicians and scientists, and proves in practice what it demonstrates in analysis.

THE M. M. MAILBOAT "ANNAM."

ANOTHER MISFORTUNE.

The French mail steamship Annam again tested the practicability of an overland route yesterday afternoon, says the Shanghai Times, of the 24th inst., and suffered therefrom to the extent of a half hour's delay on the Pootung Spit, opposite the Public Gardens.

The vessel left her moorings opposite the Company's offices at about 1.15 p.m., and cautiously proceeded down stream on the way to Woosung en route for Europe. Just as she was passing the Public Gardens the strong current caught her stern and swung it round upon the spit which projects out from the Pootung bank and here she stuck fast. After a short delay the Company's tender Whangpoo came alongside and, with the assistance of a strong hawser, hauled the big white vessel from her uncomfortable position. No damage was caused and the steamer proceeded on her voyage.

The last overland journey of the Annam is still fresh in the public mind. It is only a short time since she grounded near Gutlaff and injured her hull to the extent of 80,000 Taels. She has but recently come out of the drydock, in which the repairs then rendered necessary were effected.

IMPORTANT PROGRESS OF TREATY REVISION.

The Wooching Conference, according to the Universal Gazette, has resulted in the following agreement being arrived at between the British and Chinese Treaty Revision Commissioners.

1.—With regard to the abolition of Likin and increase of the import duty, the latter will be raised to 12½ per cent and the former, except that leviable upon salt and native opium, will be abolished altogether. China will reconstruct and reorganize the Chinese Customs and extend the operations of the service to important districts where it is not yet established, and will impose a "destination tax," vis. Loh-shui no goods. For instance, when Kueichow timber is imported into Hupeh through Hunan province, the Customs House at Sinitu (near Hankow) will impose Loh-shui, while the Likin stations at Yingchou and Wuhsuch shall be abolished.

As to the

NEW TREATY PORTS.

Nganching (Anhui) Changsha (Hunan) Wanhsien (Szechuen) and P'u-chou (Kwangtung) shall all be opened to foreign trade.

Sir James Mackay insisted upon the following three clauses being inserted in the Treaty

1. That China will revise the Mining Regulations according to the British plan and suggestions.

2. To extend the scope and limitations of the Inland Steam Navigating Regulations, which were promulgated by the Tzuangli Yamen in 1893.

3. That in accordance with the Nanking Treaty, China will permit mixed residence of foreigners in Chinese cities and villages.

The Viceroy Chang Chih-tung agreed to revise the mining regulations only where they were found unwarrantable or inexpedient, and to forego the Inland Steam Navigating Regulations, but urged that a limit of 25 years should be agreed to in leases for land. As to the question of mixed residence, the Viceroy agreed only to extend the present limitations.

In deference to the Viceroy's proposal Sir J. Mackay agreed to forego extraterritoriality after China shall have established codes and revised her judiciary and laws. As to another proposal of the Viceroy, that China should have power to inspect religious institutions, the British Commissioner agreed to it, when China had despatched SPECIAL COMMITTEES TO EACH PROVINCE, to co-operate with the head of the various missions.

The above conditions, our contemporary tells us, are already settled between the British and Chinese Commissioners and are now only waiting the sanction of the two Governments.

We rather fancy, however, that such far-reaching and vital questions as Extraterritoriality and the right of China to interfere with missionary operations will not be so easily disposed of, or settled in this off-hand fashion by the British Treaty Revision Commissioner and a Chinese Viceroy. It would be interesting also to know whether the amount of Loh-shui is to be fixed or how it is to be assessed.

COUNTERFEITERS HEAVILY SENTENCED.

CLEVER CAPTURE BY DETECTIVE GILFILLAN.

At the Mixed Court, Shanghai, two of the most notorious and expert counterfeit coiners in the Far East were recently sentenced to 300 lashes, 3 months' cage, 2 years' hard labour, and deportation at the finish. They have been at work about eight years in Shanghai and various cities of central China, and defied all efforts to catch them until most cleverly run to earth by Detective Gilfillan in a Hongkong opium den.

CHOLERA AT PORT ARTHUR.

Writing from Port Arthur on the 23rd inst., the correspondent of the Shanghai Times says that owing to the rigid sanitary measures enforced by the authorities, this port has hitherto enjoyed an immunity from the scourge now visiting Shanghai and other places in China. Unhappily one or two suspicious cases have come to light and, while no official announcement has been made, it is feared and currently reported that cholera has broken out. If these reports are confirmed there will be considerable delay and inconvenience in regard to mails and steamers.

G. GRAULT, for RED, WHITE, BLUE, GREAT SPECIALTY COFFEES.

THE CHEFOO TRAGEDY.

VICTIMS DIED FROM CHOLERA.

On Saturday evening, says the China Gazette of the 23rd inst., we mentioned that the thirteen unhappy schoolboys who met their deaths under such tragic circumstances in the China Inland Mission School at Chefoo, did not die from stomach poisoning, as was believed by the doctors there, but really succumbed to the now all too active scourge of cholera. This news has now been fully confirmed, the Coroner's inquest held at Chefoo yesterday returning a verdict of death from cholera upon the medical evidence sent for Shanghai as the result of the bacteriological examination made in the case of little Cyril Molloy by Drs. Stanley and McLeod in the Municipal Laboratory here.

Our conclusion that the death of C. Molloy, which occurred on the Wednesday, completely destroyed the theory of stomach poisoning from the chicken-pie eaten on the Sunday, has been thus quite justified, though it was strongly questioned at the time. It will be curious now to see what the Chefoo doctors, who attended these cases, will have to say to their diagnosis of stomach poisoning, for which the unfortunate little victims were treated.

Curiously enough, in the case of the very first victim, the boy Broomhall, it was said in the telegram that the school authorities believed his death was caused by cholera. But this theory was promptly abandoned in favour of the one which we now find by the analysis to have been quite erroneous.

THE HANKOW-CANTON RAILWAY.

The recent telegraphic news, that the American-China Development Company and its interest in the Hankow-Canton railroad to a Belgian Syndicate did not impress us as worthy of credence, and we are glad to be confirmed in that belief, says the North China Daily News, of the 23rd inst. The managing engineer, with a full staff, has been in Shanghai for several weeks, and we are informed that the building of the road by the American Company will begin at an early day. Large quantities of material have already arrived from America, and the concession to the American Company was fully confirmed by an Edict issued on the 12th inst.

The proposed line will be the longest and most important yet undertaken in China, and as the Americans are most skillful in the construction of railroads, there is no doubt that the Hankow-Canton line will be a model of completeness when finished. Railroads will prove the greatest civilizing agencies that can be introduced into China, as they have in all other countries where operated. When the vast Chinese Empire is interlaced with railroads the disturbances which too often unhinge markets will be at an end, and the Central Government will be enabled to relieve famines with a quickness that will protect the poor in every corner of China. Nothing will abolish the illicit stations sooner than railroads.

THE BOXER RISING.

Another Tragedy.

The Chengtu, Szechuan, correspondent of the North China Daily News, writing on the 28th ult. says—

On the night of the 18th, or rather early on the morning of the 19th, a fearful tragedy occurred in the bounds of Tzengyanghsien district, from that city about 80 li, at a place called "Tienkuchiao." This is not a village. The farmers in Szechuan live on their farms, and as these are small it brings houses often close together. At this country place the Methodist Episcopal Church had a church with forty members and over 80 probationers, most of whom belong to the Wu family. A native preacher named Chu Chen-yuen was stationed there. He was an unmarried, highly-respected man of about fifty years. Some time after midnight of the 18th a band of Boxers brutally murdered the preacher, who refused to flee though he had five minutes' warning from a neighbour who heard the band coming. His body was hacked, and head, hands and feet carried away, the church burned, and eight of the neighbouring farm houses burned and six other persons killed. Over seventy persons are rendered homeless; nothing like this has ever happened to any Protestant church in the west.

SWOOPED DOWN ON THIS CHURCH

During the next day Boxers came from various quarters and taking refuge in one of the many fortresses, or cities of refuge that abound in this part, were able for some days to defy the authorities. Troops were sent from the capital and one Chou, who in the riots of 1895 put out the proclamation saying he had evidence the foreigners were

KIDNAPPING CHILDREN, and was afterwards degraded for this. He is desirous of regaining his rank. On the 20th a battle was fought, and the Boxers were driven from this fortress with losses in killed and captives. They have taken refuge in another fortress. The situation is extremely critical. The drought is such as the oldest inhabitant does not remember its like. Rice will be only a third of a crop. The spring crops were failures. A slight rain has enabled the farmers in some districts to put out the sweet potatoes. With drought and impending famine the Boxers are multiplying rapidly, also bands of people in hundreds are roaming about seeking food when they can find it. The officials in some part are GIVING WAY TO THE LAWLESS, others are striving to do their duty; but the outlook is bad. Copious showers that would save the sweet potato crop, would help to give quiet. It is possible that the horrors of North China are to be repeated here in the West.

For foreigners to leave their posts for safer places would precipitate a crisis that the officials in the city are desirous of giving protection to all foreigners and all peaceful citizens, Christian or non-Christian, but they may not be able to do so if the drought continues.

THE RHODES MEMORIAL.—The universities of the Maritime Provinces of Canada are sending a memorial to the Executors of Mr.
Rhodes's will asking that a change be made in the conditions of the will so as to give all the Provinces of the Dominion opportunity to compete for the Oxford Scholarships. The will provides only for Ontario and Quebec, two out of seven provinces.THE CUNARD CO. AND THE COM-BINE.—Apparently replying to the statement of the Evening Post, that the control of the Cunard Line has been secured, Mr. Pierpont Morgan, according to a London Press agency, declares that no negotiations are proceeding between him and the Cunard Company. Reports are current of a new American shipbuilding trust, with a capital of 25,000,000 dollars, intended to compete for foreign orders.THE PEACE AGREEMENT DELI-VERED.—Colonel Hubert Hamilton, who brings home the original South African peace agreement, delivered the historic document signed by the Boers to the King at Windsor Castle on June 21st. Colonel Hamilton remained at the castle for dinner, at which Sousa's march "Imperial Edward" was played for the first time by the bands of the Scots Guards.
A handsome illuminated vellum copy of the march has been presented to the King.CHINA RELIEFS.—The XXX Panjab Infantry arrived at Taku on the 12th in the British India transport Uganda to relieve the VI Burmahs or the Gurkhas; they came in to Sin Ho, and went up the line next day, whereupon the Burmahs entrained for Sin Ho. The weather was unhappily adverse and the latter arrived at their destination perfectly drenched.
The departure of the Regiment is greatly regretted in Tongshan where Col. Keary and his officers have completely identified themselves with the local interests. The Peking and Tientsin Times understands that it is arranged that the XXXth will later on go to Shan-haikwan and relieve the Gurkhas.FRENCH INGENUITY.—A French company is running a telegraph line across the Sahara desert, but instead of stringing the wires on poles it is planting them underground.
The wires are incased in an armored cable, which is buried between two and three feet in the sand. To save cutting a trench a specially designed plough has been constructed which opens a slit the required depth in the ground, pays out the cable from a pulley, and then covers it up with the earth ejected in opening the slit. This ingenious apparatus is then followed by a roller which packs the dirt down on the cable. All the dangers which threaten the life of an overhead telegraph line are thus avoided. The line is to extend from Gabes to Lake Chad.

A DISGRACE TO THE COLONY.

REPRESENTATION TO THE D. P. W.

The following letter was forwarded to the Director of Public Works to-day:— Hongkong, July 28th, 1902.Hon. W. Chatham, Director of Public Works, Hongkong.Sir—We, the undersigned residents, of Conduit Road, desire to place on record our emphatic protest against the disgraceful and dangerous state in which the Conduit Road has been allowed to remain for months past, and which during the past week has become still more accentuated.A few coolies and workmen have been tinkering at the road for some six months past or more, and they have at last got the centre section into something like decent order; the western end, however, is practically impassable except at great risk to life and limb, owing to the cutting of a long deep trench for drain or other piping, and the eastern has now been rendered absolutely impassable for ladies and children, and positively dangerous for any person, by the cutting of five or six trenches some two to three feet wide, which intersect the road at intervals of some three to four yards, on the steep descent commencing at the foot of the site for Sir C. P. Chater's new house.The only means of passing out by the western end of the road is along a narrow path with an unprotected embankment most of the way on one side, and trench on the other, whilst at the eastern end no further provision for crossing the trenches has been made than by two short lengths of bamboo nailed together and thrown loosely over the gap, without any side support or railing whatever. To add to the danger of this end of the road the iron railing which formerly served as a protection at the roadside has been removed, and nothing but a rough bamboo staying now lies between the unfortunate pedestrian and a drop of some 30 to 40 feet, should he be so unlucky as to stumble when attempting to pass along this section of the road.In addition to this, no lights whatever are placed at night to mark the situation of the dangers referred to.In conclusion, we have only to add that a serious accident was but narrowly averted this morning, and that should any catastrophe occur, or loss be sustained by us, owing to your neglect, we shall hold you responsible.A copy of this letter is being forwarded to the press for the information of the general public.

We are, Sir,

Your obedient Servants,

WRECK OF THE S.S. "ADELHEID."

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

The following wire was received by the East Asiatic Trading Company this morning dated the 27th inst., from Lloyd's Agent at Labuan:—"S.S. Adelheid is a total wreck. Captain arrived here this afternoon."The Adelheid is a vessel of 900 tons registered, is owned by the Flensburg Dmpt Co. of Flensburg, and was built in 1900 by Schiffsw. V. H. Kock, Lubeck.

ST. PATRICK'S CLUB PICNIC.

Yesterday a members and friends picnic party was held by St. Patrick's Club who embarked on a launch flying the harp of Erin, at one o'clock, from Queen's Statue Wharf.They were accompanied by a string band which kept the 'ball a-rolling' as the little steamboat forged along leaving its snowy wake and a 'muggy' calm behind.
At a little village en route the launch stopped to take in tow a couple of sampans in which the party, later on, landed at the Tal-ping Straits, where the less lazy ones 'put the kettle on' while others rigged the spread on tables brought for the purpose. A few who with forethought had provided themselves with bathing costumes sneaked from the scene of operations and dived in from a clump of rocks. Others went into jungle and commenced to eat prickly pears and, had it not been for the speed in which tea was prepared, might have spoiled their appetites. After tea the band had just commenced playing and the dancing begun when a shower of rain made itself felt and the tooting of the launch gave warning that bad weather was at hand, so the party scattered into the sampans and ere long the launch had weighed anchor and was proceeding homeward full speed. The return trip was through a choppy sea and pouring rain, but the party under the awnings, and behind the side screens sang defiance to the gale. Mrs. Blake deserves special thanks for supervising the preparations.

"OUR VERY OWN."

HONOURING THE CORPS.

A beautiful afternoon favoured the Garrison picnic on the Cricket Ground last Saturday.— Shortly after the arrival of H.E. Major-General Sir W. J. Gascoigne, Subadar Jan Muhammad, of the Hongkong Regiment stepped from the midst of the troops already fallen in and received the insignia of the Order of British India. His Excellency's remarks which were translated into Hindustani by Major Berger, Officer Commanding the Hongkong Regiment, were as follows:—Subadar Jan Muhammad, I am very glad indeed to be the one to present you with this decoration, and it is with a very high feeling of pleasure that I do so, for I recognise that the decoration is not only an honour to you, but an honour also to the regiment to which you belong. I know I am only voicing the sentiment of the whole community of Hongkong when I say that the whole community regret that their connection with the Hongkong Regiment is likely soon to terminate. Hongkong is proud of its regiment, the regiment which bears its name and which was raised for service in this Colony. The regiment has done good service in and for the Colony. Three years ago, when the troubles in the Hinterland broke out, the regiment did good service, and it went far to put an end, a speedy end, to those troubles; not only that, but I say advisedly that I think that when the troubles in the North broke out, the severe punishment meted out down here in the South prevented a rising here simultaneous with the rising in the North.
Since then the regiment went up North itself, and the reports I received of it showed that it did great service, as I well know it would do.
The regiment behaved well in peace time and earned a good name for itself, especially lately, when its fate was uncertain. So I say again, Hongkong is proud of its regiment and is sorry its connection with that regiment is shortly to terminate. Subadar Jan Muhammad, you won this decoration for good service on the River Huanho in the suppression of brigands, and I give it to you with the greatest pleasure, and wish you many years of health and prosperity to wear it.His Excellency then stepped forward and placed a gold radiated star with blue centre, attached to a deep red ribbon around the neck of the stately Indian who bowed his head to enable H. E. to place it over his turban. He then gave him a hearty handshake after which the proud recipient saluted His Excellency and Major Berger and stepped back to his regiment.The saluting-base was situated in front of the Cricket Ground stand, and was surrounded by rows of chairs occupied by the party from Headquarter House, also the heads of various public departments in the Colony, and regimental and departmental officers not on duty.
Colonel R. F. Johnson, C.M.G., of the Royal Artillery, commanded the parade, and the bands of the various regiments, under Bandmaster Moir, of the Royal Welch Fusiliers, were massed in the centre of the field, and played selections during the time the parade was being formed up.The positions of the various corps had been arranged beforehand, and the arrival of the regiments was timed that no confusion should arise at the two entrances on the Queen's Road, side of the Cricket Ground. The massed bands played the regimental marches as each of the battalions stepped briskly past the saluting point. They marched on to the Cricket Ground, entering through the east gate. First came the Royal Garrison Artillery, followed by the Hongkong and Singapore Battalion of the Royal Artillery, the Royal Engineers, Chinese Sappers, and the Royal Welch Fusiliers. At the same time entering through the west gate came the Hongkong Regiment, the 10th and 22nd Bombay Infantry. They marched by the saluting base at quick time, in the same order as they entered the parade ground. The Royal Welch Fusiliers, the Hongkong Regiment and 10th Bombay trooped their colours, and besides this the Royal Welch Fusiliers were accompanied by their colours, and preceded by the famous white goat led by a soldier. None marched past better than the H.K.R., and loud applause was given to Subadar Jan Muhammad when he arrived at the saluting base and gave the order to his men in a firm voice "Eyes right." It was a small parade, but the representatives of so many nations under one flag, brought together in the one cause, was a sight which could be seldom equalled at home.COTTAM & CO. FOR WASHING SATURDAY'S ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment which was held at the Royal Engineer Theatre, Wellington Barracks, on Saturday night was a great success and the large audience were delighted with the programme. Much praise is due to the orchestra for the share it contributed to the success of the entertainment. It consisted of:— Flute and Piccolo, Pte. A. Mackie, R.W.F., Clarinet, S. Serg. G. H. Polkinghorne, R.F., Cornet, Corpl. Glenville, 2nd R.W.F. Cello Corpl. F.
White, 2nd R.W.F., Piano Pte. Goodwill, R.A.M.C., Side Drum Pte. McDermott, and R.W.F.
Trombone Sapper W. Powell, R.E., 1st Violin Pte. Dean, R.W.F. Lce.-Corpl. E. Jenkins, R.E., and Violin Corpl. Hogg, R.W.F.The performance commenced with an orchestral overture and was followed by a comic song "There's Air" by W. F. Rogers who appeared on the stage with a long crop, Mr. F. A. Palmer's song "The Sleeping Camp" was enquired, Mr.
A. G. Kent then sang a very pathetic song entitled "Baby Bill" in which he appeared with an infant who was made the lucky recipient of many caresses. Mr. W. T. Burgess's "The Old Soldier" was excellent, the acting displayed being really very good. Loud cries were given for encore which, however, were answered by a bow from the performer, who having discarded his infirmities was not presided. A comic song "The Honeysuckle and The Bee" by Mr. W. J. Dockree was enquired, Mr. G.
Whitlock who was especially accompanied by Mr. Shoffen sang "Marguerite" and was loudly encored. Mr. G. T. Deane's rendering of "The Bee-eater" ended the first part of the programme. The second part went off equally well with the exception of Mr. A. G. Kent who was below his usual mark. The farce "TO PARIS AND BACK FOR £5"was very well acted and went off exceedingly well. Mr. W. T. Burgess as Charlie Markam was perfection, as was also Mr. H. R. George as Squire Spriggins. Mr. Cameron as Fanny Spriggins was also very good on Mr. R. H.
Jewbury's part as Lieutenant Spike might have been greatly improved if he had put a little more life into his acting. Mr. W. F.
Rogers was all that could be desired as a waiter. Pounce, the detective, might have been better, but taking all circumstances into consideration the entertainment was an entire success. It will be repeated to-night in the same theatre at 8.00 o'clock, doors open at 7.30.

ANOTHER NEW STEAMER.

FOR THE I. C. S. N. CO.

On May 21st the steel screw steamer Piksang, of about 3,500 tons deadweight, built by the Campbelltown Shipbuilding Company, Campbeltown, to the order of the Indo-China Steam Navigation Company, proceeded down the Clyde on her official trial trip. The vessel is classed 100 A 1 at Lloyd's under special survey. She has been built as a single-deck ship with deep framing, with additional tween decks throughout for carrying native passengers, and complies with the Board of Trade requirements for a first-class cargo steamer with passenger certificate. The propelling machinery consists of triple-expansion engines, steam being supplied by two large cylindrical boilers working at a pressure of 170 lbs., built to Lloyd's and Board of Trade requirements for passenger certificate. During construction the hull and machinery have been under the immediate superintendence of Mr.
Murdoch, of the Indo-China Company, assisted by Mr. Harkness. On the trial everything passed off satisfactorily. The engines worked smoothly, and an average speed of over 11 knots was obtained.

S. C. FARNHAM, BOYD & CO., LTD.

The second, ordinary general meeting of shareholders in the above named Company was held on the 21st inst. at the head office of the Company, Shanghai. Mr. J. R. Twentyman, president, the shareholders present representing in all 24,648 shares.

The notice convening the meeting having been read by the Secretary.

The Chairman in moving the adoption of the report and accounts said—Gentlemen, with your permission we will consider the accounts which show the profit for the year's working, as read, and although the earnings are not so large as they were last year the result may be regarded as very satisfactory. We have again followed our usual course, and have kept the docks, plant, and machinery in good repair and working order, and the cost of upkeep has as usual been written off. During the year we considered it advisable to lengthen the Tungksadock Dock about 30 feet, we have installed a new 27-inch centrifugal pump at the International Dock, extended the wharves at the Cosmopolitan Dock, etc., the cost of which has been placed in the Building and Plant accounts. These improvements were considered necessary to facilitate business. We have further purchased a piece of land between the Cosmopolitan and International Dock properties to enable us to join the properties, and have surrendered a strip of ten feet wide at the upper end of the International Dock property to the Authorities for a road to the river. A large godown with dwellings at the International Dock was destroyed by fire in the month of October; this was a considerable loss to us. We have since rebuilt the premises and to comply with the requirements of the various Insurance Companies, iron godowns have been erected at the Cosmopolitan and International Docks for storing inflammable material such as cotton waste, bottom compositions, etc. We have further increased our capital by the issue of 6,000 new shares in order to reduce the large overdraft at the Bank consequent on the amalgamation. The why and wherefore was fully explained to you last year. The sale of the new issue realised Tls. 1,552,500, our sundry creditors amounted to Tls. 1,210,078, which left a balance of Tls. 342,422. Take the Suspense Account off, it leaves Tls. 242,422 to our credit from this account. Our gross earnings for the year do not amount to anything like the previous year, but we have not much to complain about, as I have just told you we have written off the amount placed to the Stock Suspense Account of Tls. 100,000 which I also referred to in my speech of last year. It was decided then that this amount could be cleared off in one, two or three years, as occasion required but in your interest, the Directors decided it was better to write it off at once and be rid of the burden. We have further dealt with all known bad debts and liabilities. The net profits for the year amount to Tls. 1,848,550.30 which the Directors propose to deal with as follows:—After allowing for Tls. 386,400 paid as Interim Dividend in January last, a final dividend of 10 per cent will absorb Tls. 552,000 and leaving a balance which will be dealt with as follows:—Tls. 750,000 to reserve and Tls. 60,150.30 carried to new account. Take the amount of Tls. 242,422 to our credit already referred to, off the above figures and this will give you our position. In reviewing the career of the new company during the two years of its existence, we have paid the shareholders about 45 per cent, a record which may be considered highly satisfactory. The accounts from an investor's standpoint may be regarded as of the best, but are perhaps not so encouraging to speculators: We are passing through a dulness of trade which invariably follows war, and to some may be regarded as a commercial panic, or a financial crisis which should not give us any concern, and although we have not had the volume of business we had the previous year, there is in my opinion no cause for uneasiness to the shareholders. During the year under review it has been demonstrated beyond a doubt, and especially within the last few months, that we are able to cope with almost anything. We have had some very large undertakings, but have encountered nothing too big or too heavy for us and examples are not wanting of the efficiency of our machinery and European staff. If this year continues as it began it should be a record one, and this is certainly calculated to inspire confidence in the future of the Company. When we re-valued the property before the formation of the present Company, and left what we considered a safe margin, which in itself represents a reserve of no mean sum, there would be still a big amount to fall back on. The Old Dock, for instance, is one of our most valuable assets and like everything else has a price, and should the shareholders at any time decide on selling, a big figure could be obtained. This also applies to the other properties as we have secured large river frontage which will some day prove very valuable. You will see by our accounts, the amount of unfinished work on hand and stock amounts to the sum of Tls. 1,746,453.46 proving that the works are fully employed and even this does not represent all the orders we have on hand. Every economy is observed in our business to the smallest detail, and our greatest desire is to make the most out of every item in order to give you the highest possible dividend. From appearance we have nothing to be anxious about, we have large contracts on hand and notwithstanding the increased capital, the future appears to us very encouraging. One of our most serious drawbacks, this year, has been the low exchange and the duty imposed by the Chinese Customs, amounting to 5 per cent on all imports. We have approached the German and British Ministers with a view of having this remitted in future, in accordance with the favoured nation clause in the German Treaty of 1880. Meanwhile, the duty is being paid under protest and from the very prompt and courteous reply we have received from the German Minister through Dr. Knapp there is every prospect of conducting the business on the old basis, and I take this opportunity of publicly expressing our thanks to these gentlemen for the trouble they have taken in the matter. We have placed a scheme before you for reducing the capital, this being the easiest method to adopt to conform with the Hongkong Ordinance. It is simply a question of finance and must commend itself to business men. If you give sufficient support to the scheme we will call an extraordinary meeting and put it through. I may point out to you, gentlemen, it is the desire of the Directors to put the business on a firmer basis and the best guarantee the shareholders can have is, that the business is being conducted by the parties who are the largest shareholders and are most deeply interested in its welfare. I regret to inform you that Mr. Hay has retired from the Directorate of this Company and I feel sure you will join me in the wish that he may enjoy the pleasures of retired life. Mr. von Racker and Mr. Prentice are at home on leave and are expected back shortly. We trust you are satisfied that the Directors have proved themselves worthy of the confidence reposed in them. If any shareholder has any questions to ask, I shall do my best to answer them. The dividend warrants will be issued to-morrow.

Mr. Cecil Holliday:—I hope you will bear with me whilst I make a few remarks. The first point I wish to deal with is this proposed scheme for the reduction of capital by the substitution of debentures. It is well within your recollection that something under a year ago the Directors proposed the issue of new shares, and the shareholders agreed. Then they went further and they said the prospects were so good that these shares ought to be issued to the shareholders at 125 per cent premium. Having every confidence in our Directors we agreed to that also; but now what puzzles me is that the Directors come to us and want that back, not at 125 per cent, but at par; that is to say they are going to take our Tls. 100 shares, for which we paid Tls. 125 and give us shares worth 75 per cent, and in addition to that, to make up the amount, they are going to give a debenture of Tls. 25 a share, with a fixed interest of 7 per cent, a value of very little, if anything, more than the Tls. 25 shown on the face. This strikes me, with all due deference, as very curious, and I can not understand it. Have the Directors been so completely at sea in their calculations as to lead to the necessity for this? It points to my mind to something—what shall I say?—to an unsatisfactory state of affairs, and I think it is only due to the shareholders that a much fuller explanation should have been made than has been given. That is one point, and I consider it the most important. There is another. All the Directors of this company are dock people. Of course as regards their integrity and ability we have no—and we cannot have any—doubt whatever. We could not be better satisfied if we tried, but in a company so large and where the shares are held by so many outsiders, it has been pointed out to me—and it commands itself to me—that there should be one or two gentlemen who are not connected in any way with docks, associated with the Directorate. One cannot help thinking everyone in trade has his own ideas in regard to that trade, and sometimes it is an advantage to have the advice of one who views the trade from the outside. It seems to me that is a consideration of the shareholders. That is the second point. Then I come to the third point, and that is the question of the auditors. We know Mr. Scott and Mr. Thorburn are most excellent auditors in all respects, but here again I am speaking from what I have heard from a great many shareholders, there is a strong wish that a Chartered Accountant should be associated with these gentlemen in their work. There are advantages in having a trained man in this respect which probably become from year to year more obvious. If the majority of the shareholders should not care to pursue that course, then Mr. Leake—that is the Chartered Accountant to whom I alluded, in fact he is the only Chartered Accountant in Shanghai—should be requested to put the accounts into a synopsis form so that we can make rather more out of them than the published accounts give us. I do not know, looking at them—although as I have missed a part of Mr. Twentyman's speech I cannot say whether he explained it—what we did with all the premium on those shares we issued. To what account did that go? I cannot make out from the accounts, and that is a point one would like to know. For various reasons I think it quite possible, whilst I do not insist upon it, it would be to the advantage of the company and the public, if Mr. Leake were associated with the other auditors in their work, or Mr. Leake should on this occasion draw up a sort of special report. These matters are important to the Directors and shareholders, and are not matters to be settled off-hand in a moment, and therefore, I would venture to move—

That this meeting stand adjourned until this day week so as to enable the shareholders to have full time to consider this matter.

The Chairman.—I think it is a mistake. You cannot do that. You must give due notice before you can do that. You cannot put any motion now to the meeting according to the Rules.

Mr. Holliday.—That being the case, all I can do is to submit what I have said to your consideration.

The Chairman.—It is a little bit premature to have a discussion on this question which was merely brought up for the shareholders' consideration, and if they were generally in favour to call another meeting, at which a resolution would be brought forward, I do not believe the return of Tls. 25 would have the slightest effect on the shares. We have a proof of that in the Hongkong and Macao Steamboat Co. whose shares were at 25 and they are now at 39. However, it is only a scheme for the reduction of capital and if you do not want it, I am personally content—and I am perhaps the largest shareholder—to let things go as they are. I honestly believe there is nothing better in China than S. C. Farnham, Boyd and Co., but it was not intended that this discussion should arise now, we intended to leave it to the latter part.

The resolution for the adoption of the report and accounts, seconded by Mr. J. Johnston, was then put to the meeting and carried.

On the motion of Mr. Duncan Glass, seconded by Mr. J. M. Young, the re-election of Mr. S. Groundwater as a Director was agreed to.

Mr. Geo. D. Scott and Mr. J. D. Thorburn were re-elected auditors for the ensuing year on the motion of Mr. Murray Adamson, seconded by Mr. Pemberton.

The Chairman.—I may tell you, as far as the Directors are concerned, they have no objection to public accountants, chartered accountants, or anything else to examine our books. The remarks thrown out by Mr. Holliday are calculated to create suspicion of the auditors who are both reliable men, and who are both to be trusted. It does not only do that but it casts a reflection upon the Directors, as if something existed that was not right, or something that was not in accordance with what it ought to be, and I emphatically decline to allow that to go without anything more being said about it. Hitherto the business has been conducted upon the soundest of principles and I defy any one in this room, or any one outside, to come and say that we have done anything to betray the trust reposed in us. If you are not satisfied then I say we are quite prepared to bring in chartered accountants or anyone else; the books are open not only to them but to any shareholders who wish to see them and to examine into the doings of the company. I trust I have said enough to lead you to see that we have no desire one way or the other. We have done all we possibly could, we are willing to give all the information we can to the shareholders, and we have no desire to throw dust into their eyes, but the remarks about chartered accountants were not perhaps put as they might have been or as perhaps Mr. Holliday intended to put them. If you wish to appoint another auditor we have no objection, but subject to the usual form of notice being given so that we can prepare ourselves for what is wanted of us. The thing is do you want these debentures or not? I should like to hear shareholders' views on the matter. If you do not want them we will abandon the whole thing. It was only a scheme of my own for reducing the capital. I do not believe it would affect the shareholders one iota if we returned Tls. 25. In less than a week the shares would go back to what they are now, if not better, and I am quite sure they would be better. By this proposal we would be saving the shareholders 10 per cent. on these shares and would reduce our capital and place ourselves above competition. We may have to face competition and it only strengthens our hands, but if you do not wish to do it we are quite prepared to let it go as it is.

Mr. Drosenier.—I think it would be better to issue the debentures at 6 per cent. instead of 7 per cent.

The Chairman.—It is for you to decide and if you save one per cent, it is of course a considerable amount.

Mr. J. M. Young.—I would like to know if the Directors have considered whether it would not be better to convert some of the old shares into preference shares at 7 per cent. because by that means you would avoid all the difficulty of creating debentures and hypothecating the whole of your property to trustees. I think preference shares would be much better than debentures and I would like you to bring that before the Board and ask them to consider that before they fix upon debentures.

The Chairman.—In answer to Mr. Young I have to say that we do not want any money just now. To issue preference shares would give us more money to work with, but we do not want it. If we issued preference shares we could not possibly buy them up in the same way as debentures.

Mr. Young.—My idea was to convert some of the present shares into preference.

The Chairman.—We have the Hongkong Ordinance and it is very difficult. We want to satisfy the shareholders. Personally I am of easy one way or the other. I would like to be in a position to reduce the capital of the company, because I can see the present shares would increase in value and it gives us the privilege of getting rid of so many shares because we could simply buy these shares and put them in the waste-paper basket, so to speak. If you do not want the debentures vote against them and we will do without them. It is proposed by Mr. B. A. Clarke, and seconded by Mr. A. J. van Nieop.

"That the Directors be and are hereby authorised to call an Extraordinary General Meeting of the shareholders in S. C. Farnham, Boyd & Co., Ltd., for the purpose of bringing forward the special resolutions now in your hands for the reduction of the capital of the company and the issue of debentures in connection therewith."

The resolution was then put to the meeting and declared carried.

The Chairman.—This does not bind the shareholders to anything. It only gives permission to call another meeting and you can then say whether you will or will not. At present the sense of the meeting is in favour of carrying it through, and I really think the shareholders would be wise if they let the thing go through. I am not a wiseacre, but I think I can see something ahead that would benefit the whole lot of us. I thank you for your attendance, and we have nothing more to do.

Mr. Holliday.—Will you allow me to say that I distinctly stated that I did not in any way wish to reflect upon the present auditors in any manner whatever. The matter was brought to me by several shareholders who were anxious on the point, perhaps more for the charm of having the name of a chartered accountant at the foot of the document than anything else. I brought it forward because I promised to do so, but I hope that the auditors or their friends will not think that I wanted to reflect upon them in any way.

The Chairman.—I do not think the auditors will attempt to shoot you, Mr. Holliday. We have no objection to calling in an accountant if the shareholders desire, so long as he is a trustworthy man. Of course we have trade secrets and we do not want our business talked of from Dan to Bersheba, which as you know are the extreme points of Palestine. At one time we had only one auditor and now we have two, and we do not mind if you have more.

The meeting then terminated.—Shanghai Mercury.

STRAITS POLICE.

SWEEEPING REFORMS.

The annual Straits Settlements police report for 1901 urges sweeping reforms in the detective department by enlisting a better class of men and by appointing head detectives of superior class to supervise them. One suggested means to get both is to improve the conditions of service, says the Straits Times. Besides this, the report counsels relieving the Chief Police Officer of detective work by starting a separate branch of the Force to be styled the Criminal Investigation Department. Mr. Cusuden, who signs the report as Acting Inspector-General, is of opinion that the head of the proposed department should be an officer of local experience and that, in addition to supervising the detective department, he should be charged with the duty of bringing before Government the names of criminals whom it is desirable to banish from the Colony.

MORE CHINESE CONGRATULATIONS TO KING EDWARD.

From a Vancouver, exchange we clip the following:—

Vancouver will shortly welcome two high officials of the Chinese Empire. These are His Excellency Sir Chenting Liang Ching, K.C.M.G., and the chancellor of the London, Eng., embassy, who, accompanied by their suites, will return to China via the Canadian Pacific. At present they are in London attending the coronation, and will leave for China about the first of July.

The following telegram will be sent to King Edward by the branch of the Chinese Empire Reform Association in Vancouver:—

Vancouver, B. C., June 25th.

To His Imperial Majesty Edward Seventh, King of Great Britain and Ireland, Emperor of India, Etc., Buckingham Palace, London, England.

The Chinese Empire Reform Association of Canada beg respectfully to tender to your majesty and to your majesty's royal consort, Queen Alexandra, their sincere homage and hearty congratulations on the occasion of your majesty's coronation, and they earnestly hope that you and her majesty may both be long spared to reign over a vast empire and a loyal and contented people. We also congratulate your majesty on the honorable restoration of peace in South Africa. We will ever remember the gracious kindness of his royal highness, the Prince of Wales, to us on his visit to Vancouver. We acknowledge with gratitude your majesty's interest in the advancement of China and the friendly relations which exist between your majesty and the noble Emperor of China, the honorary president of our association. (Signed) Carlo Yip-Yen, president; W. Alex. Ounipow, foreign secretary.
